RETURN OF A COMET.

There is an observatory near Florence,
Italy, much associated with cometary observation, as it was from there that Donati first observed the magnificent object which caused such wonder in the Autumn of 1858.
The successor of Donati in the Directorship, M. Temple, was also a successful finder of comets of a less splendid type, for his name is given to two small objects of this class, of the kind which return to us every few years. Temple's second periodic comet was discovered by him at Milan in July, 1876, and has a period of five and a quarter years. It was observed on its next return in 1878, and, though escaping detection in 1883 and 1889, was seen when it revisited the solar system in 1894 and 1899. The dates show that it was due again this year, and news has just come to hand that this faint object was observed at Nice by M.
Javelle on November 30, and again on December 1. It argues well for the accuracy of astronomical computation that the observation showed the prediction to be only about a second of time in error. The comet is quite low in the sky, and unfavourably situated for observation in England.
Its position on the evening of December 1 is given as R.A. 19h. 40m. 24s. increasing 3m. 45s. daily. Declination 24° 46' 48"
South, decreasing 3' daily.

CURE FOR CANCER.

A telegram from London, dated Dec. 15, says that Dr. Doyen, of Paris, claims to have discovered the cancer bacillus and a serum cure. Five experts, including Professor Metchnikoff, the Russian zoologist and embryologist, who is a professor at the Pasteur Institute, confirm the report of the discovery. These experts say that they consider that the treatment alleviates suffering. The method adopted does not avoid the first intimation to the world, outside of the medical profession, of Dr. Doyen's remedy for cancer was given by the discoverer himself, when at the last Surgical Congress at Paris he read a paper on his new treatment. There was some little excitement at the meeting, and Dr. Doyen had to remind his hearers that they were present at a scientific gathering. In his paper he said that he had never claimed to be the discoverer of a general cure for cancer, but he had described a method which had given results hitherto obtained by no one else. He had effected 42 cures up to September 30, and had 48 cases under observation, many of which appeared favourable. There had been 126 cases where the treatment had given no result, having been commenced too late or having been interrupted. In six other cases the patients had succumbed accidentally, though their cure appeared radical. Dr. Doyen declined that he had kept his treatment secret.
In his previous scientific communications he had detailed the preparation of the active liquids as well as the therapeutic method of employing them. In conclusion, he asked the medical profession to visit his establishment and investigate the results. He expressed surprise that no steps had been taken to verify his assertions, as had been done in the cases of Pasteur and Koch.
Professor Poteror, one of the most strenuous of Dr. Doyen's opponents, replied to the paper. For himself, he said, he believed that there was only one treatment for cancer, namely, the knife. He thought it would be dangerous if the public got hold of the idea that there was a serum for its cure, as patients would want to use it, and would only consent to an operation
when it was too late.
By way of pouring oil on the troubled waters, a member of the congress suggested that a commission should be sent to the doctor's house to examine his method. Dr.
Doyen refused to accept a commission with powers of control, but agreed to the appointment of a committee, which should arrange with him to choose a certain number of patients to be treated by his method.

MAIL STEAMER DEPARTURES.

The following table is a chronologically arranged list of mail steamers sailing to Europe, America, Canada, and Australia. Coast ports, Manila, and Japan are not given, for steamers are constantly sailing for those ports. All the American steamers call at Japan, and the majority of the Australian boats call at Manila, and, in addition to those vessels, special steamers run there. The departure of every steamer is subject to alteration. The P. & O. mails usually reach London in about 28 days, and the French and German in about 28 or 30 days.

HONGKONG, MONDAY, JANUARY 30, 1906.

'Sportsmen at Tientsin report that geese and swan have been seen flying northward.'

Perhaps our Hongkong sportsmen have frightened them and they have not even stopped flying at Tientsin.

'Lowlander' writes us once more suggesting that the tramway authorities should consider the advisability of discontinuing the service of 'empty' trams to the West Point terminus. He considers that the majority should return citywards from Whitty Street, only an occasional one doing the run to the terminus. This, he considers, would give the good-looking a chance to work in safety.

The N. C. Daily News is facetious at this Colony's expense. It says: 'Hongkong does amusing things sometimes, but it has now distinguished itself by declaring Shanghai to be infected with small-pox. It would be interesting to know when, since it was first opened, Shanghai, or any other Chinese town, has been free from small-pox, and how it is that Hongkong has just realized the fact. Does it mean that Hongkong is going to enforce quarantine permanently on all arrivals from Shanghai?—Our northern contemporary should learn from this that when Shanghai has a good thing it should keep it to itself. The order issued here comes of Shanghai foolishly allowing outsiders to become aware that she is blessed with small-pox. As to whether we shall permanently quarantine arrivals from Shanghai or not, that depends largely upon Shanghai's conduct. Supposing the epidemic spreads, those who have 'given the show away,' as the saying is, and causes them to 'keep it to themselves,' the small-pox we mean—the probabilities are our perpetration of 'amusing things' might let ships come in without any restrictions whatever.'

Information has been received that Hongkong has been declared an infected port by the Government of Madras.

Final Performance of 'Jane.'

Another performance of 'Jane' is to be given this evening by the A. D. C., for which the price of admission has been reduced from $2 to $1 for the dress circle and proportionately for other parts of the house.

The Water Supply.

Inquiries at the Public Works Office this afternoon elicited the information that the Colony's water supply had not benefited to any appreciable extent by the recent rain. Exact figures regarding the rainfall are not yet available. If no further rain is experienced the intermittent supply will have to be resorted to throughout the Colony in about a fortnight's time.

Fire at Shanghai.

A destructive fire occurred at Shanghai on January 24, commencing in premises occupied by Messrs W. H. Boyd and Co., Morrison and Co., and Mr B. A. Somkh, in Yuen-ming-yuen road. The three top floors of two handsome buildings were gutted, and the remaining portion of the buildings badly damaged. The damage is estimated at Ts. 100,000, which is fully covered by insurance.

The warning symptoms of consumption should be heeded without delay. Commence with moderate doses of Stearns' Wine and consult the family physician at once.

Colds are quickly cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It acts on nature's plan, loosens the cough, relieves the lungs and opens the secretions, effecting a permanent cure. It cures colds, tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia. For sale by All Dealers; WATKINS & Co., Ltd., General Agents.

FIGHTING THE AUTOCRAT.

OPINION IN ST. PETERSBURG.

London, January 28.

Although the strikes are spreading throughout different towns in RUSSIA in a sporadic manner, the impression is gaining ground in St. Petersburg that the worst is over.

The movement is expected to gradually flicker out.

THE PRESS REPUBLISHING.

A Strict Censorship Exercised.

London, January 28.

The various newspapers are again reappearing, but a strict censorship is being exercised.

No mention is allowed to be made of the strikes.

WHOLESALE ARRESTS.

London, January 28.

The Daily Chronicle's St. Petersburg correspondent wires 5,000 persons were arrested on Wednesday evening including 100 lawyers who are now en route to Siberia.

THE 'BUTCHERY' DENOUNCED.

London, January 28.

The Councils of The Civil Engineering, Polytechnic, and Mining Institutes in St. Petersburg have sent circulars to the Ministries, to which subordinate resolutions denouncing the butchery on the 21st instant and refusing to continue the courses at the University, are attached.

GREAT BRITAIN AND THE RIOTS.

London, January 28.

It is stated that the Hon. Charles Hardinge has made a fresh and a stronger protest against the placards posted in Moscow. The Chief of the Police in Moscow has informed the British Consul that he is leaving the posters up for two days longer on his own responsibility, to assist in tidying over the present difficulties. The Consul has telegraphed to the Hon. Charles Hardinge.

THE RECORD DIAMOND.

The largest diamond in the world, weighing 3,032 carats, has been found in the Premier Mine, in the Transvaal.

'AN ALLIANCE WITH MURDERERS.'

M. Rouvier, in the Chamber, has announced his adherence to M. Combe's anti-clerical programme and the Russian Alliance.

M. Rouvier's reference to the Russian Alliance in the Cabinet, was greeted with an uproar; M. Jaures and others protested against the continuance of an alliance with a Government of murderers, etc. M. Delcasse, who repeatedly intervened, implored members to refrain for the sake of the good name and the interests of France; they should never forget that the alliance had given France security. A vote of confidence in the Government was passed by 410 to 107.

Land Sales.

Two sales of Crown Land were held at the Public Works Office this afternoon and in both instances the lots were bought in by the original applicants without opposition. Mr Ho Moon Sang obtained Kowloon Island Lot No. 1162, situated at Hok U, for $1735 and Mr J. R. Michael Kowloon Marine Lot No. 87, at Yaumatei, for $72,876.

A TIMELY SUGGESTION.

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is certain to be needed before the winter is over, and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system. In almost every instance a severe cold may be ward off by taking this remedy freely as soon as the first indication of the cold appears. There is no danger in full confidence. It is pleasant to take—both adults and children like it. Buy it and you will get the best. It always cures. Sold by All Dealers; WATKINS & Co., Ltd., General Agents.

WEATHER REPORT.

The following notice is issued by the Hongkong Observatory:—

On 30th at 11.45 a.m. The barometer has risen throughout Japan and China and has fallen slightly in Formosa and over the neighbouring portion of the Pacific.

Gradients are steep upon the east coast of China and strong N.E. monsoon will prevail in the Formosa Channel and to the northward of it. They continue to be slight upon the south coast and light N.E. winds may be expected in the northern part of the China Sea.

Forecast:—Moderate N.E. winds, overcast, fair.

THE RUSSO-JAPANESE WAR.

FIGHTING ON THE SUNG RIVER.

A Japanese Repulse Reported.

(From Our Correspondent.)

TOKIO, January 28, 7.20 p.m.

Since January 25 the Russians have been active on the Sung.

On January 26 the Japanese were repulsed near Heikoutai.

Fighting has since taken place with a division of the Russians.

THE RUSSIAN ADVANCE.

Repulsed by the Japanese.

TOKIO, January 28.

Marshal Oyama reports that the enemy on the right of the Hugu has been showing activity since the 25th inst.

They advanced with at least one army-corps from a district south of Changtan (about 28 miles south-west of Moulken on the right of the Hugu) towards Heikoutai (five miles south of Changtan) and Shenchieh-pao (five miles south-east of Changtan).

We assumed the offensive on the 26th inst., and a detachment repulsed the enemy, consisting of one division, at Chenchieh-pao.

Another detachment, consisting of over one division, has been fighting with the enemy at Heikoutai since the 26th inst., and is still fighting.

GENERAL RUSSIAN DEFEAT.

The Corps Engaged.

TOKIO, January 29.

Marshal Oyama reports that the enemy's artillery fired desultorily on the 28th inst. on our right and centre.

Small Russian detachments attacked us in various directions but were immediately repulsed.

The left of our detachment, which on the 26th inst. repulsed the enemy at Chenchieh-pao, occupied Sintaoku and Sichiawofeng on the 28th instant.

Another detachment which advanced to Heikoutai secured an infantry position south-east therefrom.

Still another detachment occupied Haerhpao, five miles south of Heikoutai, repulsing therefrom the enemy which consisted of one infantry regiment and one cavalry brigade with 12 guns.

The enemy attacking the flank of our left so far appears to consist of the eighth army corps, second and fifth brigades of the European-Russian Sharpshooters, ninth division of the tenth army corps, a part of the 61st reserve division and a part of the 1st Siberian army corps.

JAPANESE SUCCESSES.

Russian Repulses.

Positions and Soldiers Captured.

TOKIO, Jan. 29, 8.25 p.m.

Marshal Oyama reports that our detachment, which occupied Liataekou on Saturday, twice repulsed, on the same night, the enemy's powerful counter-attacks.

Another detachment attacked at dawn of Sunday and occupied Feitsai-latu (two miles north of Heikoutai).

A detachment which advanced to Heikoutai repulsed the enemy's fierce counter-attacks on Saturday night and occupied on Sunday morning the positions in its neighbourhood.

The enemy in the direction of Liataekou and Heikoutai all retreated to the right of the Hugu and we are now pursuing.

We also repulsed the enemy, who repeatedly attacked on Saturday night at Chenchieh-pao and Liataekou.

The enemy in the direction of Chenchieh-pao and Liataekou consisted of the Eighth and Tenth Army Corps, while that in the direction of Heikoutai was a mixed Army Corps composed of the First Army Corps and Sharpshooters together with Mitchenko's cavalry division.

About 500 Russian officers and men were captured.

Casualties are under investigation.

KUROPATKIN'S FLIGHT.

Troops Reluctant to Advance.

London, January 27.

General Kuropatkin has resumed the offensive against the Japanese left.

London, January 26.

The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Daily Telegraph wires that General Kuropatkin has telegraphed to the Tsar, that his offensive power is seriously hampered by the reluctance of his European regiments to advance against the enemy, arguing that now Port Arthur has fallen the war is without an object.

THE NEUTRALITY QUESTION.

Washington wires that Mr Hay has suggested to Russia the submission of the questions of the violation of Chinese territory to a conference of the Powers.

SKIRMISHES IN MANCHURIA.

TOKIO, JANUARY 24.

It is officially announced that the Japanese, after repulsing yesterday about a squadron of Russian cavalry north-west of Weitsoku, near Hsienchiang, occupied Weitsoku and captured some arms and horses.

Another detachment of Japanese attacked and dispersed the enemy at Chouchiang on the Upper Yalu. The Russian losses were over twenty. The Japanese captured five officers and men with their arms and horses.

In Hospital at Port Arthur.

TOKIO, JANUARY 24.

There are fifteen thousand sick and wounded at Port Arthur, where five hundred have died since the 3rd instant. The Russian doctors are homesick, and have been much overworked.

The Punishment of a Spy.

TOKIO, JANUARY 25.

H. B. Collins, of Yokohama, has been sentenced to civil prison for espionage, having been convicted on the charge of being a Russian spy.

The Vladivostok Squadron.
